

MAM League Tournament Info

Each division in the MAM League will have a season ending tournament.

Here are the important details:

1. The tournament will be played over the final two weekends of the season
2. The tournament will be single elimination.
3. Players who didn't play during the season are NOT eligible to play during the tournament.
- 4. If your team misses two or more games during the season, you will NOT be eligible to play in the tournament.
5. The seeding for the tournament is completely at MAM's discretion.
6. MAM will take into account each team's win-loss record when seeding the tournament, but point differential will not be used. Therefore, there is NO benefit to running up the score.
